Notes for editors:

1. ICMA Centre

The ICMA Centre ('The Business School for Financial Markets') is part of the University of Reading and was founded in 1991 by a grant from the International Capital Market Association (ICMA). It is largely a graduate school that offers MSc programmes in finance in securities and markets, investment management, risk management and regulation and compliance. It also provides the teaching and examination for ICMA's executive education programmes. www.icmacentre.ac.uk

2. International Capital Market Association (ICMA)

The International Capital Market Association is the self-regulatory organisation and trade association representing constituents and practitioners in the international capital market worldwide. ICMA performs a crucial central role in the market by providing and enforcing a self-regulatory code of industry-driven rules and recommendations which regulate issuance, trading and settlement in international fixed income and related instruments.

ICMA liaises closely with regulatory and governmental authorities, both at the national and supranational level, to ensure that financial regulation promotes the efficiency and cost effectiveness of the capital market. www.icmagroup.org

3. Institut de Formation Bancaire Luxembourg (IFBL)

IFBL is a leading financial training institute based in Luxembourg. It offers a broad range of training courses, qualifications, conferences and e-learning programmes for financial institutions. www.ifbl.lu
