

Yoshiyuki Arima joined the Treasury of the World Bank in Tokyo, Japan in March 2000. As a Representative World Bank Treasury in Tokyo, Mr. Arima is engaging in Investor Relations and New Products for Japanese investors. Mr. Arima is responsible for the overall relationship of the World Bank with Japanese investors.

Prior to joining the World Bank, he worked for Bank of Tokyo and Bank of Tokyo-Mitsubishi (MUFG Bank) for 11 years in the corporate finance business, including export and import finances for trading companies, banking loan businesses, M&A business for Japanese corporates, and guarantee / fiscal agent business for corporate borrowers, including Samurai bond issuers. He also worked for the securities arm of Bank of Tokyo in New York to engage in Trading/Sales for US Treasury Bonds, Repo / Reverse Repo Transactions, and CME / CBoT Financial Futures.

He graduated Hitotsubashi University in 1989. He was a Nordic combined ski player (jump and cross country) when he was in the university.

2000年に世界銀行入行。世界銀行財務局駐日代表。本邦資本市場において、投資家へのIR活動全般を管轄、個別起債案件や新型世銀債の発行を含めた、本邦投資家ならびに世銀債を取り扱う金融機関への各種サービス提供を行っている。

1989年、東京銀行(現:三菱UFJ銀行)入行、貿易金融、融資業務、M&A等の業務を手がけた後、同行ニューヨークにて、米国債のトレード、レポ、シカゴ先物業務を中心に各種債券業務を手がけた。合併後の東京三菱銀行では本邦企業の欧州市場での起債、サムライ債社債管理会社業務、米国私募債引受業務を手がけた。1989年に一橋大学を卒業。在学中はノルディック・スキー複合競技に取り組み、1988年と1989年の全日本学生スキー選手権大会にてジャンプと複合で合計三回入賞。