If a notice designating an Early Termination Date is given under this sub-paragraph 10(b), all obligations of the parties with respect to all Transactions then outstanding will be terminated on the Early Termination Date, whether or not the relevant Event of Default is then continuing.

If at any time an Act of Insolvency which is specified in sub-paragraph 2(a)(F) or 2(a)(G)(2) has occurred, an Early Termination Date with respect to all Transactions then outstanding will automatically occur on a day immediately preceding the day that such Act of Insolvency occurred (“Automatic Early Termination”).

If an Early Termination Date occurs, the amount, if any, payable by a party in respect of that Early Termination Date (“Early Termination Amount”) will be determined pursuant to sub-paragraph 10(c) below.

- (c) For the purposes of paragraph 10(b) above the Early Termination Amount shall be calculated in accordance with the following formula:

- (i) Default Market Values of the Equivalent Securities which would have been deliverable by Party A to Party B (if any);

  - (iv) any other amounts owing or which would have been owing from Party A to Party B under that Transaction.
- B = in relation to a Transaction, the sum of the following amounts calculated as at the Early Termination Date:

- D<sub>B</sub> = the amount of Default Market Value of Equivalent Margin Securities (if any) which have not been transferred by Party B to Party A;

n = the number of outstanding Transactions under this Agreement.

If the Early Termination Amount is a positive number, an amount equal to the Early Termination Amount shall be payable by Party A to Party B. If the Early Termination Amount is a negative number an amount equal to the Early Termination Amount shall be payable by Party B to Party A. In each case the Early Termination Amount shall be due and payable on the Business Day following the day on which notice of the Early Termination Amount payable given by the non-Defaulting Party is effective and, if the Early Termination Amount has been determined upon an Event of Default that has occurred on the applicable Repurchase Date as set out in sub-paragraph 10(a)(i) or 10(a)(ii), in any event not later than 30 calendar days following such Repurchase Date, in each case without prejudice to paragraph 12 of the Agreement. For the purposes of calculating the Early Termination Amount all sums not denominated in the Base Currency shall be converted into the Base Currency on the relevant date at the Spot Rate prevailing at the relevant time.

Notwithstanding anything contained to the contrary in the Agreement, the Early Termination Amount determined in connection with an Event of Default which is an Act of Insolvency specified in sub-paragraphs 2(a)(E), 2(a)(F), 2(a)(G)(2) or, if analogous thereto, sub-paragraph 2(a)(L), shall not include any amounts of default interest or lost profit.”

(u) Sub-paragraph 10(e)(i) shall be amended as follows:

- (i) the words “the relevant Event of Default” in the first line of sub-paragraph 10(e)(i) shall be deleted and replaced by “the Early Termination Date”;

  - “(c) If –
    - (i) there occurs in relation to either party an Event of Default; and

4. REPOSITORY

- (a) A person or persons specified in Annex I (which may also include any party to this Agreement) shall be hereby designated by the parties as a reporting person for the purposes of the Reporting Regulations (as defined below) (a “Reporting Person” and if more than one party is specified, the “Reporting Persons”) to provide information regarding the Agreement and, to the extent required under the Reporting Regulations<sup>1</sup>, each Transaction made thereunder to the Repository<sup>2</sup>.

- (b) Each party hereby irrevocably consents to: (i) the disclosure, delivery and transfer by the Reporting Person of information in connection with the Agreement and any Transactions hereunder to the Repository, as required by the Reporting Regulations and the terms of the repository services and other regulations adopted by the Repository; and (ii) the disclosure, delivery and transfer of such information to the Reporting Person.
- (c) Each party to the Agreement designated as a Reporting Person undertakes to the other party that it will, or, if the Reporting Person is not a party to the Agreement, each party to the Agreement on whose behalf the Reporting Person is acting undertakes to the other party to procure that such Reporting Person will, report the Agreement (and any amendments to the terms thereof) and, to the extent required under the Reporting Regulations, all Transactions thereunder (and any amendments to the terms thereof) in the manner stipulated by, and within the timeframe<sup>3</sup> set out in the Reporting Regulations or this Agreement and the terms of the repository services and other

<sup>1</sup> Note: The Reporting Regulation requires that information on a transaction made under the terms of a master agreement be provided to a repository in accordance with the Reporting Regulations by certain categories of legal entities incorporated under the laws of the Russian Federation expressly listed in the Reporting Regulations (including credit organisations, professional securities market participants, non-governmental pension funds, management companies of investment funds, mutual investment funds and non-governmental pension funds, joint stock investment funds, trade organiser, clearing organisations and insurance companies). Other Russian legal entities (including Russian corporates) are required to report transactions to the repository only after passing certain thresholds under such transactions. Foreign entities are not required to report the Agreement and Transactions to the repository.

At the same time, reporting of the master agreement will always be a pre-requisite to enforceability of close-out netting provisions under the GMRA in insolvency of a Russian counterparty. Therefore, in the scenario where no party to a master agreement is subject to the mandatory reporting, it is strongly advisable that the foreign counterparty insists that the reporting undertakings in Section 4 are included in the master agreement. The foreign counterparty may wish to become the Reporting Person or designate the Russian counterparty or any third party as the Reporting Person. As to the reporting of the Transactions, in this scenario, failure to report the Transactions will not affect enforceability of close-out netting and would not be required under the Reporting Regulations.

<sup>2</sup> Note: The parties to the GMRA are free to designate one party or both parties or a third party (or third parties) to act as the Reporting Person for the purposes of registration of the GMRA and the Transactions thereunder with a repository pursuant to the Reporting Regulation. If a third party is designated by the parties as a Reporting Person, the parties should also indicate on whose behalf such Reporting Person is acting. As discussed above, foreign counterparties are exempt from the mandatory reporting requirements and therefore do not need to be designated as Reporting Persons or designate third party to act as a Reporting Person on their behalf, except where no party is subject to the mandatory reporting requirements and the Russian counterparty refuses to act as the Reporting Person, in which case the foreign counterparty may need to act as the Reporting Person to voluntarily report the Agreement in order to preserve the benefit of the close-out netting (as discussed above). The provisions of this Section 4 may need to be amended to reflect the relevant arrangements.

<sup>3</sup> Note: The information on the entry into the master agreement may be registered with a repository any time before the entry into the first transaction thereunder, and in case where one of the parties is subject to mandatory reporting requirements under the Reporting Regulation, not later than within three business days after the entry into the first transaction thereunder.

regulations adopted by the Repository<sup>4</sup>. If so specified by the parties in Annex I, failure by a party to perform its obligations under this sub-paragraph 4(c) shall not constitute an Event of Default under paragraph 10(a)(x) of the Agreement.

- (d) If the parties specify in Annex I that this paragraph 4(d) shall apply, it shall be a condition precedent to each Transaction that the Agreement is properly reported to the Repository by the Reporting Person in accordance with the Reporting Regulations. A party to the Agreement designated as a Reporting Person, or, if the Reporting Person is not a party to the Agreement, a party to the Agreement on whose behalf the Reporting Person is acting, shall provide to the other party evidence in form and substance acceptable to it, acting reasonably, that the Agreement has been properly reported in accordance with the Reporting Regulations as a condition precedent to the first Transaction.<sup>5</sup>
- (e) If the parties specify in Annex I that this paragraph 4(e) shall apply, each party to the Agreement designated as a Reporting Person, and, if any Reporting Person is not a party to the Agreement, each party to the Agreement on whose behalf the Reporting Person is acting, represents to the other party that from and including the date on which it has entered into the repository services agreement with the Repository, on the date on which any Transaction is entered into under the Agreement, and on each date a payment and/or delivery is made under this Agreement, including any Transaction hereunder:
- (i) the Agreement has been properly reported to the Repository in accordance with Reporting Regulations and remains registered with the Repository;
  - (ii) it has duly entered into the repository services agreement with the Repository, has duly performed its obligations under the repository services agreement and it has used its reasonably best efforts to ensure that the repository services agreement is in full force and effect;
  - (iii) if the Reporting Person is not a party to the Agreement, such Reporting Person has duly entered into the repository services agreement with the Repository, has duly performed its obligations under the repository services agreement and it has used its reasonably best efforts to ensure that the repository services agreement is in full force and effect; and
  - (iv) it has duly reported the identity of the Reporting Person to the Repository.

Each party to the Agreement designated as a Reporting Person, and, if any Reporting Person is not a party to the Agreement, each party to the Agreement on whose behalf the Reporting Person is acting, undertakes to promptly notify the other party to the Agreement if any repository services agreement listed in sub-paragraphs (ii) and (iii) immediately above is terminated for any reason, or is otherwise no longer in full force and effect.

For the purposes of the above, the following terms shall have the meaning set forth below:

<sup>4</sup> Note: Under the Reporting Regulations, information on the master agreement (its execution, any amendment and termination) and on each transaction made under the terms of such master agreement is to be submitted to the same repository.

<sup>5</sup> Note: Under Article 4.1 of the Federal Law “On Insolvency (Bankruptcy)” No. 127-FZ dated 26 October 2002 (as amended), only the master agreement is required to be reported to a repository to satisfy the condition for enforceability of close-out netting provisions under the GMRA in insolvency of a Russian counterparty.

“repository services agreement” means a repository services agreement between a party to the Agreement and the Repository in relation to the Agreement, including, for the avoidance of doubt, any applicable terms and conditions of the repository services.

“Repository” means an entity duly authorised to act as a repository under applicable Russian laws and regulations and has been designated as a Repository in Annex I; and “Reporting Regulations” means the Russian Federal Law “On the Securities Market” No. 39-FZ dated as of 22 April 1996 (as amended), the Regulation of the Central Bank of the Russian Federation dated 16 August 2016 No. 4104-U “On the types of over-the-counter contracts, which are required to be reported to a trade repository, on persons required to report such contracts, on the procedure, scope and timing for the reporting of the contracts and on additional requirements for the maintenance by a trade repository of the register of contracts, on disclosure of the information contained in the register and on the procedure and timing for the submission of the register to the Central Bank of the Russian Federation”, as amended (as amended, re-stated, re-enacted or superseded from time to time) and any other orders and regulations promulgated by the relevant Russian regulator of the securities market addressing the reporting of the Agreement and the Transactions to the Repository.

5. RUSSIAN ANNEX (2013 VERSION), RUSSIAN ANNEX (2014 VERSION) AND RUSSIAN ANNEX (2017 VERSION)

The provisions of this Russian Annex supersede all provisions of the Russian Annex (2013 version), Russian Annex (2014 version) and Russian Annex (2017 version) applicable to the Transactions and the provisions of this Russian Annex shall apply to all outstanding Transactions under the Agreement, if so specified by the parties in Annex I.
