Ruari Ewing

Senior Director, Market Practice and Regulatory Policy International Capital Market Association (ICMA)

Having previously worked as a debt capital markets transaction lawyer, Ruari has been with the ICMA since 2007. His primary focus is on the primary debt markets, where he represents ICMA's lead-manager constituency. Supporting the ICMA Primary Market Practices Committee, Legal and Documentation Committee and related working groups, he facilitates discussions among and within ICMA members and liaises on their behalf with other market constituencies and national and international authorities. Ruari is responsible for administering the ICMA Primary Market Handbook (previously the IPMA Handbook), which sets out recommendations, guidance and standard wording and documentation for syndicated cross-border debt securities issuance.
